✓ #10

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (“Commission”) on motions filed by AT&T Communications of the Southern States, Inc. (“AT&T”) requesting admission pro hac vice of several attorneys.

AT&T is a party of record in the above-referenced matter having requested, and been granted, intervention in this docket. AT&T now comes before the Commission seeking admission pro hac vice of several attorneys who will represent AT&T in association with Francis P. Mood, Esquire, a member in good standing of the South Carolina Bar. AT&T seeks the admission pro hac vice of the following attorneys:

1. Traci M. Vanek, a member of the Bar of the District of Columbia, who practices in Washington, D.C. with the law firm of McKenna & Cuneo, L.L.P.;
2. Suzanne Wynn Ockleberry, a member of the State Bar of Georgia, who practices in Atlanta, Georgia with AT&T Communications of the South Central States, Inc.;

3. Thomas Antoine Lemmer, a member of the State Bar of Colorado, who practices in Denver, Colorado with the law firm of McKenna & Cuneo, L.L.P.; and
4. Timothy G. Barber, a member of the State Bar of North Carolina, who practices in Charlotte, North Carolina with the law firm of Womble Carlyle Sandridge & Rice, PLLC.

Each Motion to Admit Counsel Pro Hac Vice is accompanied by a Certificate of Good Standing for each attorney above-listed for which AT&T requests pro hac vice admission.

Upon consideration of the Motions to Admit Counsel Pro Hac Vice, the Commission finds that the motions should be granted. It appears to the Commission that each of the above-listed attorneys is a member in good standing of the State Bar of which he/she is a member. Further, it appears that each of the above-listed attorneys will appear in the instant docket as co-counsel in association with Francis P. Mood, Esquire, of Haynesworth Sinkler Boyd, P.A., a member in good standing of the South Carolina Bar. Therefore, the Commission grants the Motions to Admit Counsel Pro Hac Vice, and Traci M. Vanek, Suzanne Wynn Ockleberry, Thomas Antoine Lemmer, and Timothy G. Barber are each hereby admitted to practice before this Commission for the purpose of representing AT&T as co-counsel in the instant action in association with the law firm of Haynesworth Sinkler Boyd, P.A.
